Dear Mr. Morisy:

On 9 January 2012, the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 8 January 2012 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for a copy of "the Central Intelligence Agency's FOIA logs for calendar years 2009, 2010 and 2011." We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

We must decline your request to waive fees, since the material referred to above has been released to numerous requesters and is already in the public domain, its re-release would not contribute significantly to the public understanding of the operations and activities of the United States Government.

Please note the FOIA case logs are unavailable in electronic format. The information includes the date the case was created, the case number, and the subject of the request. Since you are entitled to the first 100 pages free, the total cost to you is $12.40. Please send your check or money order to me, made payable the Treasurer of the United States, citing Reference No. F-2012-00574 to ensure proper credit to your account. Once we receive payment, we will send you the requested material.

Meanwhile, we will hold your request in abeyance for 45 days from the date of this letter pending your response.

Sincerely,

Susan Viscuso
